

Mechanical Design Presentation 2015/2016 - EBE

Environmental and Biosystems Engineering 4th year students had the mechanical design presentation on 5th April 2016.

The design project involves a study of the application of the general principles, empiricism of mechanics of solids to the creative design of mechanical equipment, product development, management and economics. This unit is examinable by coursework