

Meeting with representatives of Aquaya Institute

The chairman, EBE met with Rachel Peletz and Emily Kumpel representatives from Aquaya Institute. The meeting held on 17th May 2016 aimed at discussing possible collaborations between the department and the Institute.

The institute is a non-profit research and consulting organization with offices in San Francisco (U.S.A) and Nairobi. They are currently undertaking several projects in water and Sanitation in Kenya and other Africa countries.